DETAILED ACTION

Receipt is acknowledged of Amendment filed on January 7, 2003. Claims 14-17 are pending. Claim rejection under 35 U.S.C. § 112, first paragraph, as indicated in the previous Office action dated October 2, 2002, is withdrawn in view of further consideration and applicants' remarks. Claim rejection under § 112, second paragraph is withdrawn in view of claim amendments. Claim rejection under § 103 is maintained for the reasons of record.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 14-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Peffly (US 5985294).

Rejection is maintained for the reasons of record.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 14-17 have been considered but are not persuasive.

Applicants assert that the disclosure in the specification support the criticality of the number of the claimed polysaccharide monomer units. The disclosure in specification p. 26, Table merely provides that using hydroxy ethylcellulose, having "greater than 2 monomers" exhibit a superior property than disaccharide. There is no support to show that polysaccharide having 55 or more monomers is critical to the present invention.

Peffly teaches that hydroxyethyl cellulose is a commercially available, well-known, and preferred hair styling polymers. The reference further teaches that one or more hair styling polymers may be used, and that routineers would know how to select particular polymers based on the solubility of the polymers and the ionicity of the composition. See Peffly, col. 3, lines 32 – 53. The burden is on the applicants to show that applicants' invention is nonobvious or produces unexpected results against the prior art by clear and convincing evidence. See MPEP § 716.

Conclusion

No claims are allowed.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
